

Valentines Day began on February 14, 264 A.D. when Saint Valentine died, long ago. A wicked Emperor forbade marriage. Defying his orders, Valentine married couples in secret! Behind locked doors, soldiers discovered Valentines disobedience and marched him to jail. He was beheaded and to this day we remember the love he gave.